New images is a special page that lists recently added files as a gallery in reverse order, with creation date and time, current size, user who uploaded the file, and name of the uploaded file.

This feature is accessible at Special:NewImages. The page results are not adjustable using settings the Preferences.

This special page can be transcluded, with the first unnamed parameter specifying how many entries should be displayed.

This special page does not accept additional parameters.
